We are pleased to announce that Attorney Edward Cohn has been designated as an Animal Friendly Attorney™ by the Michigan nonprofit Attorneys for Animals.

Attorneys for Animals (AFA) is an organization of legal professionals and animal advocates who believe the legal system is an important tool for protecting animals and bettering their lives. The Animal Friendly Attorneys™ Program is a service designed to meet a need among people who care about animals and are seeking legal services of all kinds, not just animal law.

A growing number of people want their consumer choices to reflect their values. This designation provides the animal-conscious public with easy access to information about attorneys who practice in many areas of the law.

In order to receive the designation, attorneys must demonstrate a commitment to advancing animal protection in their professional and personal lives, pledge to support AFA's mission and to not knowingly take any action in their practice to harm animals.

AFA Board President, Bee Friedlander, states, "We are pleased to welcome Edward as an Animal Friendly Attorneys™ member. His participation expands the program to Arizona; he is only the second attorney practicing outside of Michigan to earn the designation. Edward has ties to Michigan: he is a member of the State Bar here, and he has family in the Upper Peninsula, including a 12-year old nephew who is already an animal advocate! Attorneys for Animals thanks Edward for giving the people of Tucson and surrounding areas an opportunity to choose an attorney whose values about animal welfare reflect their own.”

Edward has been a vegan for 30 years, is a member of the Animal Legal Defense Fund, and a supporter of PETA and Mercy for Animals. He is an accomplished criminal & divorce attorney in Tucson, AZ.
